THE CHILDREN OF THE CITY OF RALEIGH.—This paper has consistently advocated the establishment of public schools in the county of Wake, especially in the city of Raleigh. The children have a grievance in this regard of which we may hear nothing now, but which will make itself known as "the whirligig of time brings about its revenges.

Wake is the metropolitan county of the State, and yet she does the least of all, in proportion to her wealth common schools. And even where the schools are begun and taught, there is no money to pay the teachers, only scrip, which is marketable only at a heavy discount, although the taxpayers have paid their taxes for this humanitarian purpose. Why is this so? Because Republican officials have been derelict in this important duty and have proved unfaithful to the high trust. The Republicans hold every county office, which is elected on the general county ticket, and they have the entire management of county affairs. They, and they alone, are responsible for the shameful manner in which the educational interests of the county are neglected.

The manner in which the public treat this question amounts to a shameful apathy. Let us arouse and contemplate it fully and fairly. The children have a deep greivance as we have said against the city of Raleigh. A few of our best citizens have been laboring with tongue and pen in the cause of education for many days, but thus far their efforts have been futile. Every tax payer and father has a personal stake in the matter; the first to see the fruit of his contributions to the gublic good, and the latter to have his children properly schooled. Now we would be glad to see a meeting of all the heads of families in this city, irrespective of party differences, wherein this matter should be discussed, enthusiasm elicited, and a public sentiment manufactured, which would clear the way finally to success. Before such a popular uprising the officials who have socriminally neglected their duty in the past would have to render a full account of their trust and give way to better and more faithful men. That is what we desire. The money has been collected for schools and more can be obtained. Public sentiment should compel a speedy and fair adjustment of the county school fund and the inauguration of a system of public education which would reflect credit upon us as an enlightened and progressive people. In the name of the children we say to the citizens of Raleigh, give them the means of getting at least the elements of an education.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPA-NY .- We call especial attention to the advertisement of this staunch old Life Insurance Company, which is to be found in another column. The Ætua is too well known throughout the whole South to need a word of commendation at our hands, and its General Agent for this State, W. H. 3½ o'elock p. m. Reports were read from several County Agents referring to the wants of each particular county in the way of immigration, &c. All these reports were very encouraging and satisfactory. As a specimen of these reports we subjoin one received from the agent of Catawba county, others will be published from time to time. R. B. B. Houston, of Catawba county, reports that the people of his county favor and desire immigration; that one thousand immigrants are desired at once; that $8 to $12 and board wages, per month, can be secured by farm laborers; mechanics can do well, and women will be paid $4 to $10 per month and board. He states that women servants are in great demand. In regard to orders this Spring for farm laborers, he says: "Five hundred hands could get employment this Spring and Summer. There are a great many vacant houses here, where whole families could settle and get plenty of work in the neighborhood." In regard to land, he says: "I can sell in this county twenty thou-sand acres at from $5 to $10 per acre, terms accommodating. The land well watered and timbered; some of it weil adapted for sheep raising and all of it for farming. In the way of minerals we have gold, iron in abundance, and black lead and lime inexaustible. The soil is productive, In the lower part of the country we raise cotton; in the middle and upper portions we have begun the cultivation of tobacco, and it pays; in all parts corn, oats, potatoes, hay, rye, &c., &c. Our population is German, &c." All the agents heard from express a desire to see the work advance, and are willing

The last number of the New York South gives the following advice to this State: "Let large land owners divide their immense tracts of land into small firms, and give away, or sell at low prices, alternate sections to permanent settlers from Europe and the North. If industrious emigrants c: n be located, and the population increased twenty-five per cent., the price of lands would be enhanced more than double the present value. This certainly would compensate land owners, if by giving away half they could secure good emigrants. The State Board of Immigration has an agent located at each county seat in the State, with a central office at Raleigh. Let planters subscribe alternate sections of their landi to the society, and fix conditions, and arrange so supplies can be furnished at reasonable rates for the first few months; with these inducements and the reduced rates of transportation, intelligent emigrants will settle among you permanently, be contented and prosperous, and in a few years relieve you of the most terrible evils you are now suffering from. All will be useless unless you offer the emigrants reasonable facilities for procuring permanent homes.

Col. Mayo, who has been adjudged insane, will at once be removed from the office of State Treasurer of Virginia and his successor elected.

IT is now claimed that President GRANT will not veto the finance measure of Congress, the mild appeals of the New York Herald to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE Torch-Light, published at Oxford by two youths, Messrs. Davis & Robinson, has been enlarged and improved. We hope the Torch-Light may continue to shed its light for many days to come.

Advices from Washington say that speculation is already rife as to the probable successor of Senator Buck-INGHAM, Republican, of Connecticut, whose term of office expires next year. It is thought that Representative BARNUM is the coming man. The Republicans are slowly but surely losing ground in the U.S. Senate.

THE Charlotte Democrat, in publishing the call for the meeting of the Conservative-Democratic Committee for the State at large, to be held in this city on the 16th inst., publishes, through mistake, as the said committee only the names of the members of the Central Committee. The general committee embraces all the gentlemen appointed at the Greensboro Convention in 1872.

Gov. VANCE's recent visit to Atlanta, Ga., to deliver his lecture upon the "Scattered Nation," was made the occasion of a most pleasant affair with some of the admirers of that gentleman. A handsome supper was given the lecturer, which was participated in by such men as BEN HILL ries, etc., are too fresh in the mind of and Generals Toombs and Colquitt. Gov. VANCE is said to have been in the reader to need detail here. one of his most humorous moods, and wit and wine flowed freely.

THE Democratic-Conservative nominating Convention for the Third Congressional District will meet at overspread by the glorious sunlight Magnolia on the 6th of May. The counties composing this District are Bladen, Brunswick, Carteret, Columbus, Cumberland, Duplin, Harnett, Moore, New Hanover, Onslow and Sampson. The names of several prominent gentlemen have been used in connection with this nomination, and among them, we are pleased to notice, that of Major ENGELHARD, of oblivion. They have sown the the Journal.

"Of With His Head: So Much for Buckingham!"

One of the most gratifying features of the Democratic victory just obtained in Connecticut is the large majority in the Legislature. This body elects a United States Senator to fill the vacancy that will be oceasioned next year by the expiration of the term of Senator Buckingham. His political death-warrant is sealed so far as Senatorial honors are concerned. It is with peculiar pleasure we make use of the words which the Bard of Avon put into the mouth of the bloody Richard: "Off with his head: so much for Buckingham!"

A young lady from Holly Springs, Miss., who has been spending some months in the "Hub" of the universe, writes to the Memphis Avalanche a most humorous and witty epistle, giving her impressions of Boston and its people. She describes the people as being exceedingly Bostonianish, who look upon the South as a sort of half-civilized country with whom they remember the Federal government had a slight difficulty a few years since. We would like to copy the letter entire had we the space, but only refer to it for the purpose of re-producing the following beautiful and touching tribute paid the women of the South by the fair correspondent. After describing a conversation with a Boston lady, during which the latter is made to say: "I like your Southern women; they "are very pretty and refined and "well-bred; but do you know they "always seemed to me like dressed "dolls." The Mississippi beauty savs:

"Sweet women of the South! I thought of you as I had known you. In your homespun dress or your plain black robes; your eyes shining with faith and hope, your steady white hands binding ragged wounds, or pointing the way to Heaven to dying eyes; your toil, your suffering; your courage in those stern, sombre days when our beautiful country stood all from the extremity of one flank to bleeding and des date and despairing. the other. My eyes grew dim. Dressed up dolls!

The National Republican cries Congress to hands off the South, to let South Carolina and other Southern States alone-"the States of the "South are not so many vassals, to be bound and unbound by Congres-'sional enactment; they are the peers of every other State in the "Union, and should be treated as "peers." Isn't it rather a late day for the Republican to discover this fact. Had the North and the Republican party so adjudged a few years since, the South would not to-day be an impoverished country and her sons and daughters be only the servants of those who have robbed us of what little was left the South after the late unfortunate struggle. The Republican should not seek to palliate the villainous wrongs which have been perpetrated upon the South by its party by looking at the mis-management of some of the Northern Connecticut Election.

Connecticut has responded nobly to the signal gun fired a short time ago by New Hampshire. She has given Radicalism such a raking broadside that the rotten timbers of the craft are splintered and she is fast drifting upon the breakers of utter ruin, despite the frantic efforts of the frightened helmsmen. As prophetic of punishment as were the words on the palace walls to the royal Babylonian, are the results of the New Hampshire and Connecticut elections to the Republican party. They tell of the long deferred but sure visitation of the wrath of the outraged virtue of the public. They tell of the overwelming power with which truth will crush out error. They tell of honesty determined to assert itself over corruption. The patience of the country has been long and sorely tried by the mal-administration of governmental affairs by GRANT and his coadjutors.

Since the inauguration of GRANT in 1869, our whole government has been so debauched and steeped in infamy that now, so shamelessly hardened in crime have the clique at Washington grown, that scarce an effort is made to conceal from public view the constantly increasing nefarious transactions. Gigantic swindles and outrageous peculations, in high places, pass before the eye of the public with a panorama-like glare and rapidity. The government, as it is now administered, commands no respect from the honest people at home and is the by-word for fraud and corruption abroad. The recollections of our numerous national disgraces, crimes in the official circles, corruptions unearthed in Congress, bargain and sale in offices, the infamous personal characters of important public fuctiona-

Thank God the light is at last breaking through a long darkened sky, and as the days pass by its glimmer is growing brighter and brighter and soon the whole horizon will be of a fully awakened sense of justice and right.

The Republican party have gone too far in the career of reckless crime to retrace its footsteps and seek shelter from the storm, only the mutterings of which are now heard. which is to sweep it from power and consign its leaders to a disgraceful wind and must now reap the whirlwind.

The country has at last aroused itself to a realization of the degredation into which it has been guided by the present administration and its supporters. It has opened its eyes to the dizzy approach to the brink of the precipice and refuses to go further on the path to certain destruction, and will meet out a richly deserved and severe punishment to its unfaithful guides. The wholesome example of New Hampshire and Connecticut will be followed by other States, and such a panie will ensue in Radical ranks that even the very strongest of their strongholds will soon surrender unconditionally. While the whole country is to be congratulated upon the auspicious turn affairs have taken, the South should be particularly jubilant. To us it holds out promises of an early release from the vile political thraldom in which we have been held since the close of the war, and places in our hands the means of protecting our good name and property from malicious traducers and insatiable plunderers. We will once more have our due influence in shaping the ends of the government; we are taxed, and taxed heavily, to support, and share equitably in the benefits it confers. We will have a right to expect that the legislation of the country will not be, as heretofore, solely directed to building up New England to the detriment of all other sections and the further aggrandizement of Northern capitalists, but that wholesome laws for the good of the common country will be enacted and enforced. The movement of reform in our government has most opportunely commenced. The issue between the veniality of Grant's administration and economy and honesty has been fairly and squarely joined, and the first shock of the battle has been disastrous to the corruptionists, and its line is wavering

"The South" and North Carolina. The New York South of last week is devoted almost exclusively to North Carolina, its resources and advantages, the work of writing up the State having been done by Mr. W. J. WOODWARD, the energetic Southern agent and one of the editors of this journal and a North Carolinian by birth. This number will be followed by some two others in continuance of Mr. Woodward's description of this State, he having collected sufficient material to run through three issues. A very large number of the South are being printed for distribution in this country and the Canadas. When this shall have been done the most select portions of the North Carolina matter will be collated and printed in German and forwarded to the old country. We trust the efforts of Mr. Woodward to draw attention to his native State will meet with abundant success.

The number of the South before us contains on its first page handsome engravings of the State Capitol, the Tyron Palace at Newbern and the U. S. Mint at Charlotte, representing the East, the Centre and the West, while some five pages are descriptive of North Carolina.

We cheerfully commend the South to the people of North Carolina who may desire to see the furtherance of the object which it is endeavoring to obtain-the development of the hidden wealth of this and other Southern States, and of giving to the South that prominence which she deserves.

They call it now "misappropriation." One of the officers of the Bank of Brighton, Massachusetts, has indulged in this popular pastime. The sum "misappropriated" ranges from seventy thousand to a hundred thousand dollars, but property has been surrendered which, it is said, will cover the amount.

But for such trifles as Spain, Cuba, the temperance war, Bald Mountain and the New York Herald, the world would be at peace.—Exchange. Senator Schurz will deliver his oration on the death of Sumner, in Boston, on the 29th inst. A bar meeting in Arkansas has censured the killing of a judge by a lawyer as unprofessional.

Judge R. P. Buxton, "at the solicitation of friends of both political parties," announces himself as a candidate for re-election to the office of Judge of the 5th Judicial district.

A negro by the name of Samuel Barker was found lying dead on Church street, Charlotte, on Sunday about daylight. The temperance people are delighted that a flask of whiskey was found by his side. In speaking of an attempted outrage on the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, the Wilmington ournal of the 7th inst., says:

"As the passenger train bound North passed a point a few hundred yards this side of Lynch's Creek, a terrible jar and the noise of the wheels jumping across the rails grave evidence of the danger of a terrible disaster. Brakes were whistled down, and as soon as possible the train, which was running at full speed, was brought to a stand still. An examination then disclosed the fact that a rail, eighteen feet long, had been removed from one side of the track, with the undoubted intention of wrecking the train. Fortunately the cross lies were near together at that spot and the wheels of the engine. tender and coaches had passed safely over the chasm and at its close had again taken to the rails. The damage sustained was very slight, and in less than an hour afterwards the road was again in order and there was no detention to the trains.

Says the Wilmington Star of the 7th inst.: "On Saturday evening last, near Clio, in Marlboro county, S. C., as we rn by a special telegram and from her sources, while a young lady was her way to a neighbor's house to end the night, she was met on the ad by a colored ruffian named Anlrew McLeod, who attempted to vioate her person in the most disgraceul and outrageous manner, and upon ailure to accomplish his diabolical arpose he dragged her from the road w the hair of the head and cut two evere gashes across her throat: but he villian was fortunately deterred rom fully carrying out his last puruse by the approach of a young man, lated to the lady, who heard her ies and hastened to her relief. The y has revived sufficiently to enaor to relate the circumstance of currence, and the physician at in thinks no fears need be enfined as to her final recovery. At accounts a resolute band of young men were in search of the villian but had failed to find him."

CREMATION AND INHUMATION,-In Switzerland and Germany, cremaion has gone a long distance on its ay to public acceptance: At Zurich, where burial ground is rowing contracted, 2,000 persons rave subscribed toward an associaon founded in favor of burning the dead. At Basie the movement has received the public approval of orthoox clergymen-also on the ground promotion of health in the community. In Germany the newspapers are talking about the subject a eat deal, while one firm in Berlin has advertised the invention of a new furnace in which to perform the opeaction. And last, a church warden a Hebrew synagogue in the same ity has proposed to establish on a low burial ground, lately acquired, one of the furnaces.

THE GRANGES.—The rapidity with which the popularity of the great farmovement is increasing, and specially in the West and South, is of the most encouraging signs of times. It shows that the masses the American people are improvng in their acquaintance with the orkings of the material machinery trade, upon which the prosperity the country so greatly depends. lishows that agriculture is beginning to attract the attention it deserves. It show that the producers, transporters, manufacturers and consumers are at last to have their reciprocal relations adjusted between them, in conformity to the interests of each and in accordance with the true policy of trade for the advancement of the general good.—Richmond (Va.) Enquirer.

AN APOLOGY FROM THE PRESI-DENT.—The Washington correspondent of the Charleston Courier states, that General Grant, on the day following his remarkable interview with the South Carolina tax-payers, caused to be conveyed to them an apology for the rudeness and bad temper displayed by him during their audience at the White House.

REMARKABLE COINCIDENCE IN DEATH .- Dr. Alfred Hitchcock, of Fitchburg, Mass., died on Monday last of argeni pectoris. He was one of the medical committee present at the autopsy of Senator Sumner, and it is a singular coincidence that but little more than two weeks later, he should die of the same disease.

Miss Emily Faithful complains that out of the hundreds of women seeking for situations, she recently found it difficult to find one competent to undertake the management of a business supposed to be in their special sphere-dress-making.

The Democratic majority in Cincinnati will be 5,000 in a vote of 28,-

The Mayor and Police Commissioners of Dayton, Ohio, have issued a proclamation requiring the police to keep bands of women away from the saloons, and their presence on the curbstones provokes indecency. In Cleveland, Ohio, the Democrats, in municipal election, have gained three in the Council. The Republican loss since 1872 is 7,898. The Independent Republicans in

They will row five miles in shell boats, two miles and half with a turn for $2,000 a side, and the championship America. The race takes place at Springfield, Mass., in June.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES. FROM NEW YORK.

The New York Methodist Conference -Loss of the Steamship Europe.

NEW YORK, April 8th.-The New York Methodist Conference commenced its eighty-fourth session today in this city.

The value of the steamship Europe is about $1,250,000. She was insured in the French insurance company for about two-thirds of her value. The cargo is very valuable, consisting chiefly of silks, wines, sardines, etc. Her agents think that in this trip she certainly carried a great quantity of fine goods for the spring trade, and the value of the cargo is not less than one million of dollars. The greater part of the goods are probably insured. It is thought that all the papers of the ship and the mail were saved, as from the tone of the despatch it would appear that there was a plenty of time to transfer the passengers. The baggage is probably lost, as it must have been in the hold of the vessel. The loss of the Europe falls with heaviness upon the Trans-Atlantic Company at this time, as they had just completed their arrangements to run weekly steamers throughout the coming season. The Greece, with the vessel passengers, is expected to-night or tomorrow.

Confirmations - The Sanborn Investigation-A Question of Veracity Between Officials Known Not to Have Any-Congressional News-The South Carolina Phieves Complan Because Th y Have Not Been Conciliated.

Washington, April 8.—Confirmations—Henry C. Johnson, Commissioner of Customs; Geo. S. Fisher, of Georgia, Consul at Buriat; Benj. F. Bell, Postmaster at Americus, Ga.; Fabius Stanly, Rear Admiral. He will probably command the Pacific Squadron.

The Sanborn investigation brings out a question of veracity between the Assistant Secretary and the Solicitor of the United States Treasury. On the examination Banfield stated that he had no responsibility in the matter of executing the law; that it rests solely upon the Secretary of the Treasury. He never asked the Secretary to give any one a contract or suggested anything in reference to the per ones to be given. In referring to the late testimony of the Assistant Secretary, Sawyer that he (Banfield) nad requested a letter for himself or lina, $1.15 to $1.25. Dr. Presbery from the witness, he stated that he never solicited any such letter, and that no such conversation as that detailed by Assistant Secretary Sewyer ever took place.

He was quite positive on this point. SENATE.—Freinighusen presented memorial largely signed by New Jersey manufacturers, asking the imposition of a specific duty of one cent. per pound on tin. The present advalorem duty on tin operated against American and in favor of English merchants. It was referred o the Committee on Finance.

Johnston presented a similar petition, signed by dealers in Norfolk. Petersburg and other Virginia cities. The same reference was made.

Oglesby presented a memorial of James Beeson, asking the appointment of a delegation, composed in part of women, to visit the tribes in the Indian territory, and devise means to improve their condition. It was referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs. Carpenter said that several weeks ago he introduced a bill to provide for a new election in Louisiana. It was important that the bill should be disposed of. He had consulted with Senator West, who desired to speak on the bill, and he now gave notice that on Monday next, after the expiration of the morning hour, he would move that the Senate proceed to the consideration of that bill. He hoped it would be passed without reference to a committee, as there was no necessity for such a reference.

House.—A bill bridging the kansas river at Pine Bluff passed. Petitions regarding the tin tariff were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The currency discussion occupied the day. The debate closes to-mor-

The House sub-Committee had another session this morning on the subject of South Carolina grievances. Whittemore's delegation occupied the entire session. Con liott made an argument against the prayer of the memorialists on constitutional grounds, and protested against Congressional interference. He held that the evils complained of could readily be abated by conciliatory tactics on the part of the memo-rializing party. He said that the thoughtful Republicans of the State were ready and anxious to co-operate. The Supreme Court of the U.S., in the Texas vs. White case, held that the doctrines are opposed to the spirit of the prayer of the memorialists, and in McCullough vs. Maryland maintained the doctrine that the Federal government cannot interfere to prevent the abuse of the taxing power in a State. Whittemore followed in inveighing against the memorialists for a refusal to partipate in the Conventions forming the new State government, and denying the charges of an extravagant use of the public funds, also holding that taxation in South Carolina is not excessive. Next Wednesday is set for another hearing for both sides. Governor Porter has prepared a written statement of South Carolina grievances for the Senate Judiciary Committee, which will be read before the Committee next Monday by Hon. W. W. Boyce.
